Why: Making Sense of God's Will

by Adam Hamilton

Where is God when tragedy and suffering strike? Get fresh insight to the age-old question of how to understand the will of God. Rejecting simplistic answers and unexamined assumptions, the author lays out core ideas for comprehending God's plan for the world.

Groups at six locations, but call the church office for specifics!

Minister's Musing

Why do you stand so far away Lord, hiding yourself in troubling times?

Psalm 10:1

Anyone who has spent any time in conversation with a young child knows the merry-go-round of futility that one rides on in trying to explain the reason for a decision or come up with an explanation of the sometimes unexplainable, in response to that little three letter word, “WHY?” The answer I heard most often from my parents and thoroughly unsatisfying was, “Because I said so.” As we mature, however, this little question begins to take on more importance and is the catalyst that helps lead us into adulthood and hopefully maturity. We have all perhaps at one time or another asked this question during times of struggle and pain. We may even be asking ourselves this now in response to the fire in the sanctuary. If we haven't had these times of doubt, it is likely that others close to us have, and may have even posed to us how we reconcile our faith in a loving God in the midst of suffering. In my own life and in conversations with others about God and faith, these and similar questions seem to be the ones that come up most often and also seem to be the most difficult to answer adequately. “Why does God allow pain and suffering? Why do my prayers go unanswered? Why can't I see God's will for my life? Why should I trust God when nothing seems to make sense?”

If you've spent any time reading the Bible, or writings of women and men of faith, you know that many of them have wrestled with God over similar matters. As followers of Christ commissioned to share Jesus with the world, it is important for us to not only ponder these questions for ourselves, but be able to speak clearly into the lives of others who are hurting.

This Lenten season our four-session growth group study will center around these questions as we read and discuss together Adam Hamilton's book, Why? Making Sense of God's Will. This study promises to stimulate interesting discussion and bring depth to our spiritual growth as we contemplate together the age-old question, “WHY?”

In Christ,

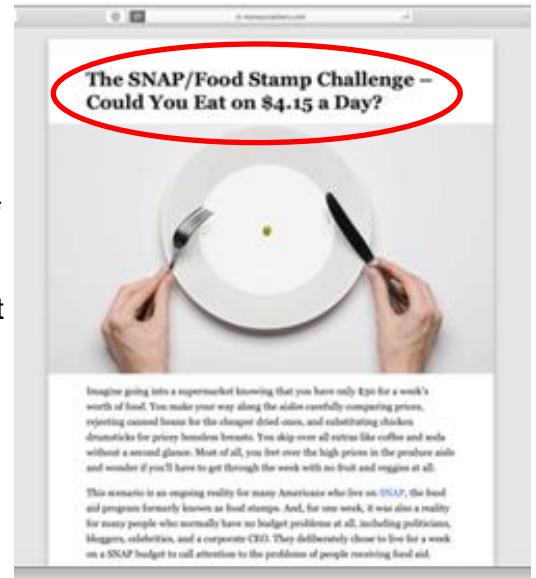

Pastor Claire

A Pastor's Pondering

The season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, which is celebrated this year on March 6th (we'll have a simple supper at 6pm followed by a worship service at 7pm). Lent is often signified by fasting: some give up chocolate, others give up television, I give up football. Because our siblings who identify as Roman Catholic give up meat on Fridays during lent, you usually can get a good deal on fish sandwiches at fast food chains.

While Lent is known for giving something up, some Christian faith traditions choose to take something on. For example instead of avoiding something for the 40 days of Lent, they will instead volunteer at a shelter or a feeding program. One year, I participated in the SNAP/Food Stamp Challenge, which invited people to only eat what a person on food stamps could afford (for more information, visit: <https://www.moneycrashers.com/snap-food-stamp-challenge/>). This meant I could only spend $5 a day, or $30 a week, on food. This allowed me to better understand the struggles one faces when your primary source of food is food stamps.

This year for Lent, your Co-Pastors are doing a sermon series entitled:

Cultivating and Letting Go. Each week, we will invite you all to both cultivate something, a practice, a skill, a virtue, and also let something go, with something new to practice each week. We believe this sermon series will be immensely helpful, practical, and transformative. We hope you'll plan to attend worship throughout Lent and invite a friend.

As part of this series, there will also be a take home devotional which allows you to reflect on a Scripture and invites you to consider things you might want to cultivate or let go in addition to the ones focused on during Sunday worship. This devotional will also invite us to use the right side of our brains and include a Lenten Calendar that you can color. These will be available in the Fireside Room and we hope you'll take advantage of this during Lent.

Your "leaning into Lent" Co-Pastor,

Paul

Scout Corner

- * The Scouts enjoyed doing the Flag Ceremony for both services on Scout Sunday. I believe they were quite impressed by the large percentage of the congregation that stood when asked if any were Scouts (Boy or Girl) when they were young.
- * The Troop had a fun outing canoeing on the Colorado River Presidents Day Weekend.
- * Wednesday meetings for March will concentrate on completion of Merit Badges.
- * The Quarterly Court of Honor will be March 27. All who are interested in scouting, parents or youth, are welcome to attend.
- * Even though we have permission to park the Scout trailer next to the Fellowship Hall, we are looking for options that may be required due to the reconstruction of the sanctuary. If you have a larger lot, please consider.

WE CAN LEARN FROM OUR CHILDREN

The Mag Pres Sunday School children are listening and willing to act.

News from the

They have taken to heart the December lessons about the baby Jesus being born in a lowly stable and how he brought his message to the poor. They wanted to do something to help people in their city who didn't have food or clothes. So, they brought their old, no longer used clothes for the homeless to be distributed at Calvary Presbyterian Church.

They also listened to the lessons about opening their hearts to let Jesus in and allow Jesus to heal a broken heart. They have made Valentine cards to be given to shut ins and lonely older people. We can all learn how to listen and act from our children.

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS - February 2019

In just under a two week period, December 24, 2018-January 6, 2019, your Session had three Called meetings. Called Meetings are special meetings for specific purposes.

After the fire of the 23rd, there were pressing decisions needing Session approval and updates to be given, and so they met. Immediate needs were approved: holding the Christmas Eve and all future services in Fellowship Hall until the sanctuary space can be used again; and installation of the chain link fence for safety. Additionally, Elders approved the designations of a contact person (Pastor Paul) to the insurance company; and a media spokesperson (Elder Ann Lauder milk). The service of Wholeness and Healing, was approved. And in true Presbyterian fashion, sub-committees were formed. One, to obtain a source for and purchase chairs for Fellowship Hall with a designated dollar amount already donated for this need. And two, a sub-committee authorized to obtain and contract with vendors for three phases of work: inventory and storage; demolition; and rebuild and repair. This committee was also given the approval to request an advance payment from the insurance company for the purpose of keeping Magnolia up and running.

Yes, this all seems very business-like, and this is the responsibility of the Ordered Ministry of Ruling Elder. However, at the December 24th meeting, hours before they would gather again to celebrate our Savior's birth, your Elders were asked to share words that reflected their thoughts: Hope, Opportunity, Connectiveness to Community, and Strength. As Timm High closed in prayer, he reminded us that in biblical times, fire could be destructive, but also a time of renewal. And it is with that in mind, your Session will face this year.

"I will baptize you with water. But one more powerful than I will come, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire". Luke 3:16

Clerk of Session

Deacon's Corner

WHO'S YOUR DEACON?

How is the New Year treating you all so far? Well, I hope!

This is Robin Smith, your Deacon and Deacon moderator for the next few years. I just wanted start this New Years with a quick introduction of your Deacons here at Magnolia.

Besides myself, Amanda Schlegel, Barbara Johnson, Cathy McGraw, Danielle Good, Edith Grant, Everal Hathaway, Evelyn Shea, Gary Grant, Gale Teunissen, Janet Doshier, Mary Lee, Melanie Nelson, Rosie Quinones, and Susie Phillips, are all here to serve and support the congregation at Magnolia Presbyterian.

As you Deacons, we are here for many reasons and in many ways. Each of you, for the most part, are assigned to a deacon and are a part of their "flocks". Many of you may already know who your deacon is but if you do not, please reach out to myself, any other deacon, the pastors, or call the office to find out.

We as deacons want to support the Church family in anyway we can especially in times of need, crisis, or loss of a loved one. We want to share in good time and challenging times with you and your families and lend support whenever possible.

Your Church Deacon,
Robin Smith

Session Meetings and Minutes

Session meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of every month at 7 pm in the church library. These meetings are open, so if you would like to attend and listen to the conversation, you are most welcome.

Copies of all session minutes are available in the office, or by email request.

KITCHEN DISHES

If my memory serves, it was in the late 1950's or maybe early 60's the Magnolia Presbyterian Church Administration committee, on which Bill served, decided the church kitchen was too small and needed remodeling. The Mariners group collected funds to expand the kitchen, then purchased a new fridge and stove.

When Mariners from Magnolia invited groups from other churches there were not enough dishes. Everyone had to bring their own place setting, so we needed to purchase a large set. We collected Blue Chip stamps from church members until we had enough to buy the current set of Corelle dishes.

I remember not being able to get as many sets as we wanted the first time. When we made a second trip to the redemption center to get more dishes, it looked like they no longer had the same pattern. It took some searching but we were lucky enough to find more.

These Corelle dishes have served the church well for 50 plus years. However, they are no longer used and it looks like the cupboard space could be put to better use. Therefore, you have my blessing to pass them on to whomever or whatever organization would like them.

Blessings, Gale Teunissen

These dishes are being given away and will be available at the church through March 31st.

What is the EASIEST way to contribute to MagPres?

SOCIAL MEDIA AND THE CHURCH

The church has a Facebook page and now there is an Instagram page too; post at #magpreschurch.

Social media is a great way to promote MagPres, its mission and activities, but...Please think before you post to Facebook or #magpreschurch!

Think: Why am I posting?

Think: Will anyone be put in danger?

Think: Will anyone be embarrassed by this post?

Think: Will the church's reputation be tarnished?

Think: Does this post reflect church or personal beliefs?

Think: Have I checked a # to make sure it is appropriate?

Think: What if I run into a church member who asks about the post?
